"M. Drouyn de Lhuys referred to the representation I had made in regard to the shooting of the Mexican prisoners taken in war, and also to the case of Madame de Yturbide. Why, he said, do you not go to President Juares? We are not the government of Mexico, and you do us too much honor to treat us as such. We had to go to Mexico with an army to secure certain important interests, but we are not responsible for Maximilian or his government. He is accountable to you, as to any other government, if he yionies its rights, and you have the same remedies there that we had."

Dur Relations with France and Mexico

If the news of the last day or two be reliable the end of Maximilian in Mexico is probably not far off. Napoleon it seems has formally disowned any responsibility for his acts. So it would appear at least from the note of the French Minister of Foreign affairs to our Minister. Mr. Bigelow, who is our Minister, reports thus to Mr. Seward:

"M. Drouyn de Lhuys referred to the representation I had made in regard to the selection I had made in regard to the selection of the Mexican prisoners taken in war, and also to the case of Madame de Yturbide. Why, he said, we found the subject of treating Tennessee just like the other rebel States.

CARD FROM JOHN MINOR BOTTS.—
John Minor Botts has some out in a card denying that he has sought to prevent the admission of the Virginia Members. He says: I have maintained that every Representative constitutionally elected, who was prepared to comply with the requisitions of the Constitution and laws was, as fully entitled to take his sent as any of those now occupying seats in either House. To have taken any other ground would have been to admit that the States lately in rebellion had been out of the Union, and consequently that secession was lawful and constitutional, a position that nobody will suspect me of occupying.

tion that honory will suspect the cupying.

Citangus in the Carinet.—It is positively stated that the portfolio of the Interior Department, was offered to Senator Doollitle, of Wisconsin, on Wednesday, and that he declined it. Mr. Harlan, the present Secretary of the Interior, expects to be elected Senator again from Iowa. Secretary Stanton's physician tells him he must resign or die, and he is therefore seriously thinking about resigning. Reports of a pending reconstruction of the cabinet on account of differences of opinion are squarely contradicted, and it is affirmed that the cabinet is a unit in support of overything vital in the policy of the President, and that no changes are thought of except in the War and Interior Departments.

Taxation of U.S. Bonds.—The move-comes such news as the following from New Orleans:

General R. Clay Crawford has arrived at Brownsville with an appointment as General in the Mexican Republican and anthority to recruit an American divisors. — L. Menublican service under his command. General Crawford has established a recruiting office in Brownsville, and at other places in Texas, and enlistments were already progressing rapidly. It is reported that General Lew. Wallacd and John A. Logan are connected with the movement, and are soon expected. Cavraja, the famous Mexicanfillibuster, is expected with a large sum of money to assist in defraying the expenses.

The Imperialists in Matamoras, under General Mejia, have commenced barricading the streets, fearing an attack from General Crawford's American division at any time.

'It is said that General Crawford will join Escobado, and move on Montercy, establishing their baseat that point.

LATER.

Later news says that American families are leaving Matamoras and coming to the American side of the river, fearing an attack.

The Liberal forces, numbering 2,200, are scattered along the river.

Additional accounts from Brownsville state that Gen. Crawford's Chief of Staff, Col. A. F. Reed, is rapidly raising recruits in Brownsville, enlisting U. S., and promising them dislined that army during the past two or three was a certainty of the State vor the Scates army during the past two or three forces army DEMERTERS.—Deserters from the regular army during the past two or three months have been unusually numerous, and in excess of the number received into its rank by recruiting. As a general rule about two-thirds of the men entisted since the close of the war deserted after receiving their first payment, unit the remaining third after the second payment, and this state of things is owing principally to the lack of discipline for which the officers are responsible.

It is an acknowledged fact that many of the three months volunteer regiments, raised at a moment's notice, at the beginning of the war, were better disciplined organization than some of the regular regiments now are. The navy is also losing largely from this cause. A few days ago, seventeen privates and one corporal, of the marine corps, stationed at this point, deserted after receiving their pay.

District Court of Alabaian, having made an issue with the Government on the habeas corpus, and declared the test cath unconstitutional, has returned to Washington. The President sustained Gen. Woods in disregarding the writ of habeas corpus issued by Judge Busteed in favor of Mr. Dexter, accused of cotton frauds. On Gen. Woods' statement to this effect Judge Busteed discontinued proceedings against him, but yery emphatically protested against what he considered an encroachment of the executive upon the judiciary, and declared that Dexter could not legally be tried by court martial, although the President had expressly ordered it.

Prentice, of the Louisville Journal, says:

"The Fat Contributor' is withy without the least approach to valgarity."

The Bamillo Express says:

"Hun-ki-do-ri is the best combination of wit, sentimen and satire we ever-heard."

The Eric Dispatch says:

"No comic lecturer ever pleased an Eric audience as well as the "Fat Contributor."

The Cleveland Herald says of the lecture:
"It was humprous in the fullest acceptaint." "It was humorous in the fullest acceptation of the term, no relash, but fresh, buyen delivered in Olivinal Common Section ever delivered in Olivinal Charles and Page 1882.

The Cleveland Hain Dealer says:

"It was one of the richest, rarest, raciest combinations of humor, wit and whetom ever dished-up, and might appropriately be styled "Salad for the Solemu-choly."
